ABOUT THE HONOREES

Cuyahoga County Executive
Chris Ronayne

Cuyahoga County
Executive Chris Ronayne

has been a champion for Northeast Ohio throughout his career in public service. As the City of Cleveland planning director, he was the chief architect of the Cleveland Lakefront Plan. During his 16-year tenure as president of University Circle Inc., he helped transform Ohio's education, medical and cultural district into a thriving and complete community. Today, as County Executive, he brings his passion and energy to the business of Cuyahoga County, which is in large part the business of health and human services and the wellbeing of children and families.

The Center for Community Solutions

For more than a century, The Center for Community Solutions has supported the health and human services sector of Northeast Ohio. This work, which has taken form in research, advocacy and thought leadership, has been instrumental in helping PEP advance its mission. Community Solutions' focus on strengthening the social safety net and promoting sound Medicaid policy has helped secure necessary resources for our organization and amplified the impact of our work.

PEP recognizes that achieving its vision of an equitable community where every young person is valued and experiences joy and deep fulfillment is only possible with the support of a community that is actively engaged in democracy.
