ABOUT THE HONOREES

JONES DAY

Jones Day's Cleveland Office has been a partner to Positive Education Program since PEP's inception in 1971. Jones Day is the firm that helped PEP incorporate, and it is the only for-profit entity in the region that has always had one of its leaders serve on PEP's Board of Directors. Throughout Greater Cleveland, Jones Day lawyers take on many important roles, sharing their time, talent, and treasure with nonprofit organizations large and small.

MAUREEN CORCORAN

Since 2019, Maureen Corcoran has served as the Director of Medicaid in Governor Mike DeWine's administration. Prior to her role at Medicaid, she founded and led Vorys Healthcare Advisors, where she was a strong voice for building systems of care designed to help children thrive. That passion and wisdom has informed her work with Medicaid, as she has been the primary architect of OhioRISE, a specialized Medicaid managed care plan with tailored services to meet the needs of youth with complex needs.

PEP is committed to understanding and overcoming the significant trauma and chronic stress experienced by many of the youth we serve.
